LOBBYIST • ATTORNEY • WRITER • TEACHER
Law Office of Larry Doyle

Lobbyist: Provide effective representation for my clients in and before the California State Legislature as a registered lobbyist. Resurrected legislative program of former client Conference of California Bar Associations (CCBA), guiding more than a dozen sponsored bills into law each year and helping enact others supported by the organization. Develop and implement effective strategies for achieving legislative objectives based on extensive background as legislative staffer, including stints as policy committee consultant, parliamentary advisor to Assembly leadership, media staffer and speechwriter. Work closely with other organizations to achieve common goals. Promote client visibility and presence. Mobilize and train volunteers. Testify before legislative committees.

Lawyer: Provide thorough, well-written research and strategy memoranda, briefs, points and authorities, and other materials for client attorneys. Represent clients before State Bar in discipline and admissions matters. Legal Ethicist: Advise client attorneys on ethical practice and risk management, particularly in the areas of advertising and the ethical use of technology. Writer: Author of numerous articles on legal ethics and professional responsibility topics. Teacher: Produce and present MCLE courses.
